GOVERNMENT'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE AND ARGUMENT OR QUESTIONS THAT SUGGEST THE CHARGED GUN AND AMMUNITITON WAS PLANTED ON THE DEFENDANT

The United States hereby moves in limine that the defendant be precluded from making any argument or asking any questions that suggest that the firearm and ammunition were planted on the defendant. As grounds therefore, although defense counsel has submitted voir dire questions that suggest that this might be a defense, the defendant in a sworn colloquy with the Court stated that this "was not what happened." Because the defendant's sworn statement shows that there is no longer any good faith basis for any such defense, the defendant and his counsel should be precluded from pursuing it at trial.

Respectfully submitted,

CARMEN M. ORTIZ
United States Attorney
